Workshop on Depression and Parenting

April 14, 2008

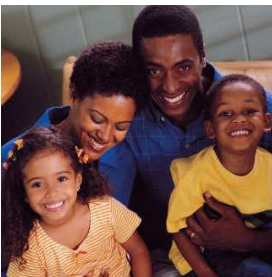

8:00 am — 5:30 pm

Arnold and Mabel Beckman Center of the National Academies

100 Academy Way

Irvine, CA

This Workshop will:

- Examine the integration of services for depression, parenting, and child development in medical and other settings
- Discuss unmet needs and challenges in addressing depression in parents
- Examine innovative models for integrating parenting, depression services, and child development
- Explore opportunities and challenges related to policy, legislation, and financing

The Committee on Depression, Parenting Practices, and the Healthy Development of Children is holding this workshop to obtain information relevant to its deliberations. A workshop is often a component of the data-gathering phase of a National Academies' study. This workshop is open to the public.

All are welcome to attend. Seating is limited. For Agenda and Registration see
